

From the Shadows

From your high stool, tall and grand
You don't see us, you won't hear us
But we have heard your every plan
From these shadows where we stand

You rule you reign you steal you spend
You don't see us, you won't hear us
But we are rising to defend
From these shadows where we stand

Ignoring those from who you steal
You don't see us, you won't hear us
You take what's out to feed your greed
From these shadows where we stand

But we are stronger than you know
You don't see us, you won't hear us
As quietly our anger grows
From these shadows where we stand

And now we slowly gather round
You don't see us, you won't hear us
Stepping forth to regain our ground
From these shadows where we stand.

© MCPS PRS Laura-Beth Salter, released on 'Continuum' by The Shee, 2016.