

The Braver One

Chorus :

The braver man, the stronger one No use for fists and knives He's listening to everything Without the urge to fight
And the march goes on but he doesn't join
Just to rile up tainted pride
The braver one's a stronger man

His silence doesn't make him weak, it just means he's listening To what many people feel and think.
It's not always simple He's seeing that a flock of sheep can be a dangerous calling We are given minds with which to think
And not to keep ignoring

Chorus

There's victims bleeding from your words, but you're still singing You battle on to prove your faith has the highest calling You've forgotten that the joys of life are for all for living
You think you have no choice but to fight Fear keeps you marching

Chorus

This city stands upon the backs of its many people
But some can't see they're causing cracks, and they're getting deeper What you don't understand you push away, think it'll save your nation You seem to hate a man for just his thoughts
When he could be your fellow.
