

Teacher

As I sit and stare
You say your days aren't long
And as you combed my hair
You taught me how to sing a song

You took my hand
Lead me through these lands
You've always helped me see

As you explain to me
Life's like the open sea
Each wave will crash and break
But the sea rolls on the same

And now the tables turn
But I've so much left to learn
You've always helped me see
You gave all of this to me.
